

RIGHT NOW, WE WANT...

We're still scratching that fanny-pack itch, but on days and nights when we want to step up our style, this leather and suede pouch belt by Manimal is a sleeker utilitarian option. Plus, there are ten of its kind. $75 at ofakind.com.

You may have outgrown summer camp, but you're never too old for a camp-style care package. We're looking to relive the good old days with Best Made Company's kitschy version, packed with everything from a slingshot to a fire-starting kit to a Swiss Army flashlight. $145 at bestmadeco.com.

There's no need to upload your videos to YouTube if you're using the Sony HD camcorder projector. The high-def camcorder is equipped with a projector so you can display your footage any time, any place. Although, using this camera reduces the chances of your video becoming a viral hit on the Net. $999 at store.sony.com.

Hate ironing? So do we. And the new Downy Wrinkle Releaser means you could say good-bye to your iron forever. Just spray it on clothes and smooth out the wrinkles. Now we can all finally stop pretending the wrinkled-shirt look is fashionable. $4 at Target (locations around the city, target.com).
